Your high Enterprising interest, combined with strong Communication, Relationships, and Leadership strengths, suggests you would enjoy the client interaction and negotiation aspects of real estate.

HOW AI MAY CHANGE YOUR CAREERS

Your strengths in relationships, communication, and leadership suggest you are well-suited for roles that require strong human connection and guidance. While your interest in investigative and conventional tasks means you will likely use AI for analysis and data handling, your people-focused skills will remain very valuable in your matched careers as AI changes routine work.

Paths you may not have considered

Investment Banker

Strong
FIT

Finance | Strong fit | New direction | AI impact risk: Medium

Your top interests in Enterprising, Conventional, and Investigative suggest you would thrive in a role that combines leadership, detailed organization, and complex problem-solving. Your strong drive for Wealth, Reputation, and Status, along with a preference for fast-paced, large organizations, aligns well with investment banking.

This field generally offers significant growth opportunities and financial rewards for those who demonstrate high performance.

WHAT IT TAKES TO GET THERE

The main steps to enter this field involve gaining a strong understanding of finance and business through formal education, along with practical experience.

WHAT YOU CAN DO NOW

You could begin by taking a free online course on financial markets or investment fundamentals to explore your interest further.

How AI may change this career

AI impact risk: Medium

TASKS THAT ARE CHANGING

- Data entry and reconciliation
- Basic financial modeling
- Routine market research and report generation
- Summarizing publicly available company information

Global evidence: Globally, AI tools are automating many routine data analysis and report generation tasks in finance, allowing professionals to spend more time on client interaction, strategic advice, and complex problem-solving, based on general industry trends.

In your market: AI adoption in financial services in the GCC is generally growing, particularly in areas like data analysis and back-office operations, but strong human relationships and cultural understanding remain key in this market.

HUMAN SKILLS THAT STAY VALUABLE

Client relationship management and trust-building
Complex negotiation and deal structuring
Strategic advisory for unique business challenges
Ethical decision-making and risk assessment
Understanding market nuances and human behavior

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR YOU

As a career changer with no work experience, understanding how AI assists with data analysis is important. You could consider taking a free online course in basic financial data analysis tools to see how they work alongside human expertise.

Lawyer

Strong
FIT

Legal | Strong fit | New direction | AI impact risk: Medium

Your high scores across Investigative, Enterprising, and Conventional interests suggest you enjoy thorough research, strategic thinking, and working within structured legal frameworks. Your strengths in Strategic thinking, Communication, and Learning, along with values like Impact and Reputation, are well-suited for a legal career.

The legal profession offers a clear path for advancement, specialization, and opportunities to make a significant impact on society.

WHAT IT TAKES TO GET THERE

Becoming a lawyer typically requires completing a university degree in law and passing professional examinations to be licensed.

WHAT YOU CAN DO NOW

It would be helpful to research different areas of law and perhaps watch free online lectures or webinars that introduce legal concepts.

How AI may change this career

AI impact risk: Medium

TASKS THAT ARE CHANGING

- Legal research (finding precedents and statutes)
- Reviewing large volumes of documents
- Drafting routine contracts and agreements
- Summarizing case information and findings

Global evidence: Globally, AI assists lawyers by speeding up legal research and document analysis, freeing up time for higher-level strategic work, complex client interaction, and nuanced legal advice, based on general industry trends.

In your market: Legal firms in the GCC are increasingly using AI for efficiency in tasks like research, but the demand for skilled lawyers who can provide nuanced advice, build client trust, and represent clients effectively remains strong.

HUMAN SKILLS THAT STAY VALUABLE

Strategic thinking and complex problem-solving | Court advocacy and persuasive argumentation | Client counseling and empathetic listening | Ethical judgment and navigating legal ambiguities | Negotiating complex settlements and advising on human impact

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR YOU

Even without legal experience, understanding how AI tools help with legal research is useful. You could explore free online introductions to legal research principles and how technology aids this process.

Real Estate Agent

Strong
FIT

Real Estate | Strong fit | New direction | AI impact risk: Medium

Your high Enterprising interest, combined with strong Communication, Relationships, and Leadership strengths, suggests you would enjoy the client interaction and negotiation aspects of real estate. Your interest in Freedom, Wealth, and Reputation also aligns well with the potential for independence and success in this field.

The real estate market in Saudi Arabia is experiencing significant growth, driven by various development projects, offering good potential for new entrants.

WHAT IT TAKES TO GET THERE

Key steps to becoming an agent include understanding real estate regulations, market dynamics, and developing strong sales and negotiation skills.

WHAT YOU CAN DO NOW

You could consider attending a free local seminar on real estate or conducting informational interviews with active real estate agents.

How AI may change this career

AI impact risk: Medium

TASKS THAT ARE CHANGING

- Property matching based on simple criteria
- Generating standard property descriptions
- Basic market research and price comparison
- Initial client inquiries through chatbots or automated systems

Global evidence: Globally, AI tools help agents find properties and create listings more efficiently, but successful agents still rely on personal connections, persuasive communication, and understanding complex human needs during transactions, based on general industry trends.

In your market: The real estate market in the GCC is dynamic, and while online platforms are common, agents who can offer personalized service, build trust, and leverage local expertise are highly valued.

HUMAN SKILLS THAT STAY VALUABLE

Negotiating complex deals and overcoming objections | Understanding client emotions and unspoken needs | Building trust and personal rapport | Showing properties and creating a positive experience | In-depth local market knowledge and community insights

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR YOU

Your communication and relationship-building strengths are key here. It would help to learn about local property markets and how to use digital tools for research, while focusing on developing your personal sales and negotiation skills through practice.

Military Officer

Strong
FIT

Government | Strong fit | New direction

Your high Enterprising, Conventional, and Investigative interests, along with strong Leadership, Strategic, and Execution strengths, suggest you thrive in structured, goal-oriented environments. Your interest in Security, National Contribution, Reputation, and Status, and preference for large public sector organizations, aligns well with a military career.

A military career offers a clear path for leadership development and advancement, providing diverse experiences and skills that are highly transferable. However, it is worth noting that government hiring in Saudi Arabia has experienced a freeze in 2026, which could affect immediate entry opportunities.

WHAT IT TAKES TO GET THERE
Becoming an officer typically involves meeting specific eligibility requirements related to education and age, followed by rigorous specialized training.

WHAT YOU CAN DO NOW
You could research the requirements and training programs for officer roles in the Saudi Arabian armed forces to understand the path clearly.

Career Counselor

Strong
FIT

Social Services | Strong fit | New direction

Your top Investigative, Enterprising, and Conventional interests mean you are drawn to understanding individual situations, creating structured plans, and guiding others. Your high Communication, Relationships, and Learning strengths, combined with a desire for Impact and National Contribution, would be valuable in helping people find suitable career paths.

Career counseling is a meaningful profession with stable demand, especially given the ongoing focus on workforce development in Saudi Arabia.

WHAT IT TAKES TO GET THERE
To enter this field, you would typically need to acquire knowledge in career development theories, labor market trends, and counseling techniques.

WHAT YOU CAN DO NOW
You might consider volunteering at a local community center or educational institution that offers career guidance to understand the role better.

Life Coach

Good
FIT

Social Services | Worth exploring | New direction | AI impact risk: Low

Your strong Communication, Relationships, and Leadership strengths indicate you are skilled at connecting with and guiding people, which is central to life coaching. Your high Enterprising interest means you enjoy taking initiative, and your desire for Impact aligns with helping clients achieve their personal goals.

The coaching industry is expanding globally, offering opportunities to work independently or within organizations, with flexibility in your practice.

WHAT IT TAKES TO GET THERE

You would need to learn specific coaching methodologies, develop strong active listening skills, and gain an understanding of human behavior and motivation.

WHAT YOU CAN DO NOW

It would be helpful to explore free introductory online courses on coaching principles or listen to podcasts by experienced life coaches.

How AI may change this career

AI impact risk: Low

TASKS THAT ARE CHANGING

- Providing generic self-help advice
- Scheduling appointments automatically
- Retrieving basic factual information for clients
- Generating simple goal-setting templates

Global evidence: While AI can offer basic self-help suggestions, the deep, personalized support, genuine connection, and intuitive guidance provided by a human life coach are not replicable by technology, based on general industry trends.

In your market: The demand for personal development and coaching services is growing in the GCC, with a strong emphasis on cultural understanding and human connection, making personal relationships key to success.

HUMAN SKILLS THAT STAY VALUABLE

Active and empathetic listening | Asking powerful, insightful questions | Building deep trust and rapport with clients | Motivational interviewing and guiding self-discovery | Understanding individual psychology and emotional dynamics

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR YOU

Your communication and relationship strengths are extremely important for this field. You could consider volunteering for a community support group to practice active listening and empathetic communication skills.

Personal Trainer

Good
FIT

Sports | Worth exploring | New direction

Your high Enterprising interest, along with strong Communication, Relationships, and Leadership strengths, suggests you would enjoy motivating and guiding clients in their fitness journeys. Your interest in Impact aligns with helping people improve their health and achieve personal well-being goals.

This role offers flexibility and the chance to build a client base, with increasing public interest in health and wellness across the region.

WHAT IT TAKES TO GET THERE

To become a personal trainer, you would need to acquire knowledge in exercise science and nutrition, and obtain relevant professional fitness certifications.

WHAT YOU CAN DO NOW

You could visit local fitness centers to speak with personal trainers and understand their daily work and the qualifications they pursued.

Sports Coach

Good
FIT

Sports | Worth exploring | New direction | AI impact risk: Low

Your high Enterprising interest, combined with strong Leadership, Communication, and Relationships strengths, indicates you enjoy guiding and motivating teams or individuals. Your interest in Impact and ability to strategize would be valuable in helping athletes develop and succeed.

Coaching offers a rewarding path with opportunities to work at various levels, from community programs to professional teams.

WHAT IT TAKES TO GET THERE

You would need to gain in-depth knowledge of sports science, specific coaching methodologies, and practical experience in a particular sport.

WHAT YOU CAN DO NOW

You might consider volunteering with a local youth sports program or school team to observe coaches and learn about their approach.

How AI may change this career

AI impact risk: Low

TASKS THAT ARE CHANGING

- Basic performance data tracking
- Generating generic training routines
- Providing general fitness advice
- Scheduling simple team activities

Global evidence: AI can provide valuable data on athlete performance and suggest basic training plans, but the coach's role in inspiring, connecting with individuals, and fostering personal growth remains central to athletic success, based on general industry trends.

In your market: The sports sector in the GCC is expanding, and while data tools are used, the demand for human coaches who can build strong relationships and provide personal motivation is high.

HUMAN SKILLS THAT STAY VALUABLE

- Motivating and inspiring athletes
- Building team cohesion and trust
- Providing personalized feedback and emotional support
- Adapting strategies in real-time during games or sessions
- Understanding individual athlete psychology and well-being

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR YOU

Your strengths in relationships and communication are very valuable here. You could consider volunteering to assist a local sports team to see how coaches use these skills alongside any performance data tools.

04

Your plan

One small step for this week, then a simple 90-day path, built around your top career match

Built around your top match: Investment Banker

Your first step this week

A good first step is to identify two specific job titles from your matched careers list that involve working closely with people, such as a Life Coach or a Career Counselor. Then, find two or three people currently working in each of those roles in Saudi Arabia or another GCC country using a professional networking site like LinkedIn.

Why: This will help you understand the day-to-day work and real-life experiences of people in these roles, which is helpful given your interest in Relationships and Communication.

YOU WILL PRODUCE
A short list of 4-6 potential contacts (names and their current job titles) you could reach out to.

WHEN
Within 2 days, about 1 hour

Worksheet:

Matched Career Title 1

Matched Career Title 2

Person's Name and Job Title 1

Person's Name and Job Title 2

Days 2-7

Days 2-3 – We suggest writing a short, polite message (2-3 sentences) to send to each of the people on your list from Day 1. Ask if they would be open to a brief 15-minute online chat about their career path.
You will produce: Two draft messages, one for each career title, ready to send.

Day 4 – You could send the messages you drafted on Days 2-3 to the people you identified.
You will produce: Messages sent, and a note of who you contacted.

Days 5-6 – If someone responds, we advise you to prepare 3-4 simple questions you would like to ask them about their work, for example, "What does a typical day look like?" or "What parts of your job do you enjoy most?"
You will produce: A list of 3-4 questions for an informational chat.

Day 7 – A good way to end the week is to review what you produced and pick the next step. This could be scheduling a chat if someone replied, or looking for more people to contact if you didn't hear back.
You will produce: A clear next action item for the following week, based on your progress.

Your next 90 days

1 Weeks 2-4 – Build momentum

It would help to complete at least two 15-minute online chats with people in roles like Life Coach, Career Counselor, or Real Estate Agent.

You could consider finding a free, short online course that introduces basic concepts related to one of the careers that interested you most from your conversations, such as 'introduction to coaching' or 'basics of real estate'.

A good next step would be to compare the skills needed for a Real Estate Agent and a Lawyer by looking at 3-4 job descriptions for each in Saudi Arabia, noting common skills like 'communication' or 'negotiation'.

2 Months 2-3 – Build

Taking a slightly longer online course in a specific skill relevant to Investment Banker or Military Officer roles, such as financial modeling basics or project management fundamentals, is recommended.

We advise you to identify a local professional organization or group related to one of your matched careers (e.g., finance professionals, legal associations, or coaching circles) in the GCC and explore if they offer virtual events or resources.

You could prepare a basic resume highlighting your communication, leadership, and relationship-building strengths, thinking about how these skills apply to roles like a Sports Coach or Military Officer, even without direct work experience.

Your skills to build and practice exercise: Investment Banker

SKILLS TO BUILD

Data Interpretation and Contextual Understanding – AI tools can process vast amounts of financial data, but a human touch is still needed to truly understand what the numbers mean for a business or market and to place them in a broader context.

Ethical Judgment and Stakeholder Consideration – Financial decisions often have major impacts on many people, and while AI can analyze outcomes, deciding what is right, fair, and best for all involved still requires human ethics and good judgment.

PRACTICE EXERCISE

A good exercise would be to find a simple, publicly available annual report summary from a company you find interesting (you can search online for 'company X annual report summary'). Ask a free AI tool to list 3-5 key financial trends or risks from this summary. Then, read the summary yourself and compare the AI's points with what you understood. Note down any important details or 'human context' you found that the AI might have missed, or any ethical implications of the company's activities that AI did not highlight.

YOU WILL HAVE

You will have a document with the AI's summary, your own notes on additional insights or contextual details, and your thoughts on any ethical considerations related to the company's activities.

05

Your Path Forward

Your strengths in building relationships, clear communication, and leadership are excellent foundations for a new career, even without prior work experience. A path like becoming a Real Estate Agent could allow you to use these skills to guide clients and build a trusted professional reputation in the GCC market.

1. It would help to complete a licensed real estate training program in Saudi Arabia or another GCC country. These programs teach you about property laws and market practices.
2. You could consider joining a well-known real estate agency as a trainee or junior agent. This would allow you to gain practical experience and learn from others.
3. A good next step would be to build your network by connecting with developers, property owners, and other real estate professionals in the region. Strong relationships are important in this field.
